10am Celebration of the Holy Eucharist

Musical Prelude	“Lord, I Want to Be a Christian”	arr. John Carter
Welcome and Announcements
Ringing of the Bells of Calvary and Procession to the Altar of God
Opening Acclamation and Penitential Rite:
Priest: Blessed be God....	People: And blessed be God’s Kingdom now and for ever. Amen
Priest: Call to repentance	Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor

prayerful silence is observed & then the following prayer is offered

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you, in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen

Song of Praise: Hymnal 1982 #404

We will extol you, ever-blessèd Lord; your holy Name for ever be adored; each day we live our psalm to you we raise; you, God and King, are worthy of all praise, great and unsearchable in all your ways.

Age shall to age pass on the endless song, telling the wonders which to you belong, your mighty acts with joy and fear relate; praise we your glory while on you we wait, glad in the knowledge of your love so great.

You, Lord, are gracious, merciful to all, close to your children when on you they call; and slow to anger, merciful and kind, in your compassion we your blessings find. We love you with our heart and strength and mind

Collect of the Day: Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Jonah

3:1-5,10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

The Word of the Lord    Thanks be to God

Responsorial PsalmTeach me your ways O Lord; teach me your waysPs 25- GelineauA Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

7:29-31

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

The Word of the Lord.    Thanks be to God

~prayerful silence is observed~

AlleluiaCelticThe Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

1:14-20

Glory to you Lord Christat 8am: Glory be to thee, O Lord

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news." As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea-- for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord    Praise to you Lord Christ    at 8am: Praise be to thee, O Christ

Homily*Nicene CreedThe Church's ancient and universal statement of faith*

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

Prayers of the People    Deacon: Let us answer the call of Jesus our great high priest as we intercede for men and women everywhere, saying, Lord hear our prayer

For all nations and peoples, and for regions torn by conflict; that we may embrace God's call to justice, reconciliation and peace:    silence and intercessions    We pray to you Lord Lord hear our prayer

For the church; and especially for our Bishops Dabney, Michael and Barry and all the clergy and people; that we may answer the call to lay aside our divisions for the sake of the Gospel of Jesus who prayed that we would all be one and love one another as he loves us so that the world may believe.    silence and intercessions    We pray to you Lord R/

For our faith community here at Calvary, and in particular for those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this week silence and intercessions May we always rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep. We pray to you Lord R/

For those in need; for the hungry and homeless, that food and shelter might be theirs; for the oppressed and downtrodden, and for the sick and the infirm and all who have asked our prayers    silence and intercessions    that health and wholeness may be God's gifts to them through Christ in the power of the Spirit; We pray to you Lord R/

God of the Saints in every generation,    give rest and peace to all the departed and in particular those whom we remember today:    silence and intercessions    May they rejoice eternally under the shadow of your wings and be granted eternal life and peace in the company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul, Saints Timothy & Titus, St Thomas Aquinas, St Lydia & her Companions, and all your Saints in Light.    We pray to you Lord R/

For the special needs and concerns of your people gathered at this Eucharist    silence and intercessions    We pray to you Lord R/

Offering of the Peace of Christ    extend a gesture of Christian friendship and reconciliation

Offering of Bread, Wine, and our Stewardship in Christ    Gather Hymnal #661 The Servant Song

The Great Thanksgiving    (Book of Common Prayer page 367)

The Lord be with you.    People And also with you

Lift up your hearts.    People We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.    People It is right to give God thanks and praise

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name: (S-124) Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might; Heaven and earth are full of your glory! Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father: We remember his death. We proclaim his resurrection. We await his coming in glory!

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory are yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen Alleluia Amen Alleluia Amen Alleluia!

Our Father

Breaking of the Bread      silence is observed, and then the following is sung by Cantor & repeated by all

Becoming A Life–Long Giver

Giving is one of the greatest joys of our Christian life, but, did you know there are many different ways to give to Calvary? Some are simple, some offer benefits to you and to your church. Some continue to give beyond your lifetime. Some may surprise you by allowing you to give in ways you have never imagined. Here are examples of types of gifts you can give above and beyond your gifts in the weekly offering:

Cash
Appreciated Securities
Life Insurance Policies
Real or Personal Property

Bequest in Will/Living Trust
Retained Life Estate
Charitable Gift Annuity
Charitable Trusts

Find out how you can donate to the Calvary Endowment Fund and become a member of the Calvary Legacy Society. Please call the church office at 727-595-2374.
