10am Celebration of the Holy Eucharist

Musical Prelude "Allegro" from Sonata No. 1 by Johann Ernst Galliard
Maria Vera, Trombone Soloist

Welcome and Announcements

Ringing of the Bells of Calvary and Procession to the Altar of God

Opening Acclamation & Penitential Rite

Priest: Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

People: And blessed be God's Kingdom now and for ever. Amen!

Priest: Penitential Reflection

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

(a period of silent reflection is observed, after which the following prayer is said by all:)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you, in thought, word, and deed; by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart, and we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen

Song of Praise: 1982 Hymnal #380

From all that dwell below the skies, let the Creator's praise arise! Let the Redeemer's Name be sung through every land by every tongue!

Eternal are thy mercies Lord, and truth eternal is thy word: thy praise shall sound from shore to shore till suns shall rise and set no more.

Praise God from whom all blessing flow; praise him all creatures here below; praise him above ye heavenly host, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Gathering Prayer for the Lord's Day Presider: Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah

18:1-11

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: "Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words." So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him. Then the word of the LORD came to me: Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the LORD. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it. And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it. Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the LORD: Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings. The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God!

Responsorial Psalm*In every age O Lord, you have been our refugeGelineau Psalm 90A reading from the letter of Paul to Philemon

1-21

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith toward the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother. For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love-- and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother-- especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God!

Alleluia*CelticThe Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

14: 25-33

Glory to you Lord Christ Sam Glory be to thee O Lord

Now large crowds were traveling with Jesus; and he turned and said to them, "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions. The Gospel of the Lord Praise to you Lord Christ Sam: Praise be to thee O Christ

Prayers of the People

Deacon: Trusting in God's mercy and looking to the Cross of Jesus, we offer our intercessions saying, Lord hear our prayer

God and Father of all, grant that together with our Bishop Dabney, our Presiding Bishop Katherine, and all members of your Church, we may know the way of the Cross to be the way of life...silence... We pray to you Lord

Bless our president Barack, our governor Charlie, our Mayor Bill, and all our political leaders and all nations and people; that our nation may be delivered from arrogance and “do justice and love mercy and walk humbly with you our God.” intercessions We pray to you Lord

Open our hearts and our hands in love for the homeless, the poor, the sick and all who have asked us to pray for them... intercessions ... In your mercy and love, be their refuge and strength and grant them the gifts of healing you know them to be most in need of. We pray to you Lord

We commend to your never failing care and protection our family members, friends, neighbors and all who celebrate birthdays and anniversaries this week...intercessions... May your mercy and loving kindness follow them all the days of their life. We pray to you Lord

God of the living, in whose hands are the souls of the righteous, grant eternal rest and peace to our departed brothers and sisters and in particular all those whom we remember by name at this Eucharist... intercessions ... May they be gathered to the banquet table in your heavenly kingdom in the company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, Blessed Constance & her Companions, Blessed Alexander Crummell, and all your Saints in light. We pray to you Lord

Upcoming Events and Notices

Tuesday, September 7th: The Learning Center is about to reopen! Basic Internet Class will be offered on Tuesday evenings (Sept 7-14-21st) 6-7 pm and Basic Computer Class will be offered on Saturday mornings (Sept 18, 25 and Oct 9th) 10-11 am. For registration information, contact parish office 595-2374.

Sunday, September 12th: Christian Formation -Our class begins today immediately after the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Kids make sure you bring your family to church on the 12th (and every Sunday morning) and while they are enjoy meeting old and new friends at the coffee hour, we will be having our own great time. Don't forget to bring a friend! (A Note To Parents) What a wonderful year has been planned and we need all of you to support it. The best news is that Dianne Oeste has taken on the leadership for this group and has done a marvelous job of planning. She and her team, Jane Small and Lorena Grizzle, have some great ideas ready to put into action. Please be sure to support their time and effort by making sure your children are present every Sunday for the class time. Also a special reminder that parents need to bring their children to the classroom and pick them up after class. We do not want the children unattended. Thank you.

Sunday, September 12th: Youth Lunch Meeting - Please join us after Church (approx noon) for a lunch meeting at TJ's Italian Restaurant in Indian Rocks Beach. Lunch is free and we're looking forward to seeing everyone. Bob and Francesca Anthony will be us and we hope to come up with some great ideas for excellent activities this Fall. PLEASE RSVP to Fr Bob.

Thursday, September 23rd: Greetings from the Beach Community Food Pantry- Summer is coming to an end but there is no end in sight to the need for donations to our Food Panty. Your generous support will make a difference. Our neighbors at the IRB Homeowners Association are also lending a hand. They are sponsoring a Happy hour on Sept 23rd at Guppy's. The cost of participation to eat delicious appetizers and discounted cocktails are donations of canned goods. November will bring The Taste of IRB. Again, the Homeowners Association will sponsor a table for the Beach Community Food Pantry. Volunteers will be needed to set up, man the table and clean up. Please contact me, Anny Tarrant, with any questions or assistance the Food Pantry can provide.
In Gods' love, Anny Tarrant (ama56@verizon.net) 727-595-1820

Saturday, October 2nd: 16th Annual Blessing of the Animals at 10 a.m. All pets and people of good will are invited! Pet food donations will be gratefully received for the Beach Community Food Pantry to assist needy families trying to care for their pets.
