Holy Eucharist Rite II

The Rector's Welcome

Welcome to Calvary Episcopal Church! Please know that you are a blessing to us by being present today.

This congregation has been worshipping in Indian Rocks Beach since 1962. By worshipping with us today, you are becoming part of this vibrant tradition of prayer and praise.

The purpose of Christian worship is to proclaim the wonderful redeeming works of God in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, our Lord. We do this by proclaiming God's Word in Holy Scripture, praying for the world and ourselves, and most important, gathering around the altar to celebrate the real presence of Jesus through the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. Our prayer is that you will join this growing Parish family and become part of our mission to "Know Christ and make Him known."

You can learn more about Calvary by contacting our Church Office, reading our "Newcomer Guide," or speaking to me or a member of our Vestry before you leave today. For the latest news events, please visit our website (calvaryirb.org) and subscribe to receive our weekly eNews. May God bless your time here today and may you know the redeeming power of His tender love and embrace.

Yours in Christ,

The Rev. Jon Roberts
Rector

THE LESSONS - The people sit.

The First Lesson (Acts 8:26-40)

Reader: A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

"Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth.

In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation?
For his life is taken away from the earth."

The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?" He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 22: 24-30

Deus, Deus meus

*Leader: My praise is of him in the great assembly; **

I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.

*People: The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the LORD shall praise him: **

"May your heart live for ever!"

*Leader: All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD,  and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.

*People: For kingship belongs to the LORD; **
he rules over the nations.

Leader: To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; *
all who go down to the dust fall before him.

People: My soul shall live for him; my descendants shall serve him; *
they shall be known as the LORD's for ever.

Leader: They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn *
the saving deeds that he has done.

The Epistle (1 John 4:7-21)

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter of John.

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. So we have known and believe the love that God has for us.

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn: Descend, O Spirit, purging flame Hymn #297 (vs. 1)

The Holy Gospel (John 15:1-8)

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John ✠

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ

Jesus said to his disciples, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn: Descend, O Spirit, purging flame Hymn #297 (vs. 2)

The Sermon The Rev. Jon Roberts

Nicene Creed (All stand, if able) BCP p. 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead ✠, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People (Form III) BCP p. 387

Celebrant: Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Leader: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People: That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

We pray for all those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries. Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. (we invite you to share your intercessions)

Celebrant: Lord, hear the prayers of your people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The General Confession

BCP p. 359

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Most merciful God, . . .

All: (Stand, sit, or kneel, if able): . . . we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, ✠ strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

BCP p. 367

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

*People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

*People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

*People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. (The Proper Preface)

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Hymn S-125

*All: Holy, holy, holy Lord God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. ✠
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.*

Celebrant: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. ✠

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." ✠

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All: We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant: And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem

Celebrant:
(Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.)

Celebrant:
Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;

People:
there - fore let us keep the feast.

(Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.)

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All Baptized Christians may receive Holy Communion and others are encouraged to receive a Blessing from the priest, especially young children who have not yet made their first Communion or those who have not been baptized.

Communion Hymn

What wondrous love is this

Hymn #439

Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant: Let us pray. Eternal God, . . .

All: . . . heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing & Dismissal

Celebrant: The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Celebrant: Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Magnolia Tree Dedication A Magnolia tree was donated by the Sutherland family and planted by the white cross on our church property in memory of their son, Charlie. At 9:30 today, there was a special prayer of dedication.

New Parish Administrator Please welcome Lisa Galish, our new Parish Administrator, who started on April 15th. Stop by the Office and introduce yourself. She will need a few weeks to get acclimated to how our church operates, so please be patient. She will correspond with your requests through the standard email, admin@calvaryirb.org. Lisa comes with great business and church experience and will spread her talents across three main areas of church efforts: Publication, Communication, and Bookkeeping.

Pledge Campaign If you have not made a pledge to Calvary this year, prayerfully consider doing so. Let's work together so we can reach our budgeted goals and keep our church sustainable.

Bible Study continues each Wednesday at 10am via Zoom. It is commonly referred to as a study of the Bible, but it takes other directions from time to time. The group will be focused on the life of the Saints for the month of April. Contact Bill Athanson or the Church office.

Calvary Bookies May 20th - Covenant of Water by Abraham Verghese.

Finance Committee Member Needed This committee is most important, giving monthly reporting and recommendations to the Vestry so they can make good and wise financial decisions. Currently, there are four members, and we are seeking a fifth. If you have experience and interest in the finance area of our church operation, we will enjoy a conversation with you. For additional information, please see Karen LaCorte-Nies or Fr. Roberts.

Counter Team Needed Every week, two-by-two, a team of "Counters" arrives in the office (usually Mondays) to count the cash and checks accumulated from the week before and tally those donations for deposit. We currently have two teams but are looking for a third. If you and 'another' parishioner would like to couple up and become the third team, it would be of great help. You would be expected to count every three weeks in rotation and the job takes about 2-3 hours depending on the level of contribution. Not only are amounts counted but they are also entered and designated in Realm/ACS. Training is provided. Please see Johnny Ballard, Polly Leibe, Marilyn Clark, Karen LaCorte-Nies or Fr. Roberts if you have questions.

Vacation Bible School VBS will be June 10-14 and we need many willing and capable volunteers for prior training. Please see Patti Brady if you can help out.

Vestry Retreat The importance of our Vestry gathering for a retreat cannot be underscored enough. Chris Vasquez will facilitate the Vestry Retreat at Calvary, May 18th. If any parishioner would like to volunteer to be a host/hostess for hospitality, please let us know your interest.

Spiritual Retreat Would you like to go up into the North Carolina mountains in June for a time of deep reflection and spiritual renewal? This annual retreat, for families, will not disappoint. The event is at the Kanuga Conference Center (Episcopal) in Hendersonville, NC, June 23-28. To find more information, visit <https://www.kanuga.org/our-programs/adults/>

Cursillo #151 Calvary is looking to send two “pilgrims” to the Cursillo retreat, 3-day weekend at Dayspring, September 12-15th. A third of the cost is covered by the Judy Marx Fund and another third is to be covered by a Sponsor. It has been a few years since we last sent anyone from our parish. For more details, please visit the following and see Fr. Roberts, Bob Lima, or Marilyn Clark if interested. <https://www.cursilloswfla.org>

Air Conditioner Update After three commercial AC units went out, an immediate capital campaign was called by the Rector and there were generous donors who stepped up for the challenge. The total cost of replacement is $72,000. $36,000 has been promised to date. The Vestry recently approved use of the Endowment to cover the difference. In the meantime, we will continue to keep the campaign open for those who would like to contribute and reimburse the Endowment. The campaign will end at the end of April. With only a short time remaining, please designate your gift to the “Keep it Cool” Campaign.
